

Wills, Trusts & Estates

The Torkin Manes Wills, Trusts & Estates Group is uniquely positioned to advise and represent clients in the complete range of legal services related to estate planning, estate administration, and estate litigation. As part of a full-service firm, we collaborate with our Business, Tax, Real Estate, Not-For-Profit & Charities, and Family Law Groups to provide seamless, efficient service to ensure that our clients' legal and family interests are protected and their goals are achieved. Torkin Manes' long involvement with the entrepreneurial community makes us especially suited to advise family business owners on succession planning.

Our clients include individuals, business owners and their families, trust companies, government agencies, and charitable and not-for profit organizations.

Our estate planning services includes techniques to achieve our clients' objectives and minimize taxes, through the preparation of Wills, powers of attorney for property and personal care, trusts and charitable giving. As well, we coordinate with U.S. professional advisors when completing cross-border planning for U.S. citizens and clients purchasing vacation properties in the U.S.

We advise executors and trustees of their duties and responsibilities in the administration of an estate, attend to the preparation of the application for the Certificate of Appointment of Estate Trustee, assist with the transfer and disposition of estate assets, their distribution to beneficiaries and the preparation of accounts.

We advise beneficiaries of their rights and entitlements under wills or trusts. We also provide advice to other fiduciaries, such as attorneys and guardians of property.

Torkin Manes is fortunate to have on its Wills, Trusts & Estates team a senior specialist in Estate Litigation with wide ranging expertise in estate and trust related disputes, including validity or interpretation of wills; the appointment or removal of estate trustees, trustees or guardians; dependant support applications; spousal equalization claims; breaches of trust; guardianship applications; applications for directions and advice; passing of accounts; and applications to vary trusts and wills.

Our senior estate litigator is also an experienced estate mediator.

Practice Group Leads

Risa Awerbuck 416 777 5425 Craig Vander Zee 416 643 8812

Practice Group Team

Barry S. Arbus, QC 416 777 5423 Daniel J. Stober 416 777 5191
Linda J. Godel 416 643 8809 Tanisha Tulloch 416 777 5359
Kay Leung 416 777 5428